

This cartoon of my great grandfather Ned Bagot was published in Punch in 1880

“We ne’er shall look upon his like again” cartoon from Punch.

(Cartoon from Adelaide Punch in the late 1800’s presented to the National Trust by Mr Jack Rymill on behalf of Elders Goldsborough Mort)

Who am I?

My father was Richard Neetle Bagot, his father was Richard Neetle Bagot and his father was Edward Meade Bagot, the figure in this cartoon from Punch. Original in State Gallery.

who came to Adelaide with his father Captain Charles Harvey Bagot.

his father was Christopher Bagot of Nurney. County Kildare Ireland.

His family had settled in Ireland at the end of the twelfth century, having crossed from Staffordshire where the Bagot’s held estates after the Norman Conquest.’